

09 JUL, 2020

LGBTI traders sell their wares for Pride

Bangkok Post, Thailand

LGBTI traders sell their wares for Pride

Kandy Zyanide.

To promote gender diversity and equality, EmQuartier joins hands with leading real estate developer Sansiri to present the “Pride Charity Market Place” at the Helix Garden, 5th floor of EmQuartier, Sukhumvit Road, daily from 10am to 7pm, starting today until Sunday.

Held under the “Tradey No Shadey” concept, the market brings together products and shops owned by LGBTI people as well as shops by Sansiri residents who are affected by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Also expect to see famous brands by SME entrepreneurs and Thai fashion houses including Issue, Leisure Project, Kanapot and Theatre and try sumptuous menus from food shops owned by Sansiri Family residents such as Cute Kitchen, Just Crab Pls and Take A Wrap.

Opening to all genders, the event will be enlivened by entertainment and music. There will be a live show by inspirational singer Jern Jern Boonsoongnern today at 2pm while Kandy Zyanide from Drag Race Thailand Season 2 and Miss Tiffany 2019 Ruethaipreeya Nuanglee will perform on Saturday at 5pm and 6pm, respectively.

PHOTOS COURTESY OF EMQUARTIER

The last day will feature a special show by Thailand’s number one drag queen Pangina Heals at 5pm before fashion stylist Araya “Art” Indra will add more vibe to the evening as the DJ.

There will also be activities to raise funds for the Rainbow Sky Association of Thailand to support LGBTI youths and first jobbers and their transitions to adulthood.

Call 02-259-8753.