

98 WIRELESS
Sansiri CEO settles for only the best

ANNE CARSON exclusively styled the business lounge in Ralph Lauren Home furnishings.

A GRAND STAIRCASE exudes stature and timeless values.

reporters from Asia for a glimpse of the project.

The smallest unit will be going for about Bt60 million.

Thus far, the project has sold 20 per cent of its space thanks to a firm booking for its largest penthouse. That alone has fetched Bt600 million alone. The buyer was reportedly a local tycoon with many investments abroad, including a top British football club.

Apichart is a graduate of University of Utah with a bachelor's in finance, followed by a master's in business administration from the University of San Diego.

The architecture and interior design of 98 Wireless offers a modern version of classic style.

The building draws inspiration from classical European Beaux-Arts style embracing traditional craftsmanship and artisan integrity.

New York interior designer Anne Carson exclusively styled the grand reception areas and three levels of amenities including a tea salon and an business lounge in Ralph Lauren Home furnishings.